

Name: Michelle Long

Age: 35

Hometown: My dad was an Air Force Colonel
- we moved every two years...

Business/job title: Executive Director, Sustainable Connections

Favorite memory: Month long trek in Nepal with Derek, & believe it or not, our first SC board retreat! We'd worked hard together & that wkend we played hard too!

What brought you to Bellingham?
Originally the mountains & a log cabin - Now I can't imagine leaving

Family:
Husband Derek Long;
2 1/2 year old monkey, Hadley "Lulu" Long

Favorite movie:
Whatever is at the Pickford

Favorite book: This month - Deep Economy by Bill McKibben - he's speaking at our 4/20 Spring business conference.

In your CD player:
Ultra Chilled 4.0

Favorite place in Whatcom County:
Above the tree line - high & outside.

Last local purchase: A great lamp at Samuel's Furniture. Oh - & a "big-girl" bed at Dream On Futon.

Dream vacation: I've traveled a lot.
Right now it would be a few months on the Pacific Crest Trail.

Local business you'd love to own:
Sanitary Services Corporation (SSC) - lots of good things going on there & lots of potential.

Favorite hobby:
Lulu

Worst job: My first - at Frisch's Big Boy. All the meals looked the same to me - I wasn't a very good server.

Word that best describes you:
Excited

Favorite local restaurant: So many... AND I love being anywhere that Ciao Thyme is catering!

Person you would like to be for a day:
A Professional skier or a Pacific NW Native American Chief 500 years ago!

Guilty pleasure:
Salt & vinegar potato chips

Why do you read The Bellingham Business Journal?
I love our business community - so to read great things about great people in a great place.
