Local events scheduled for mom-and-pop business owner day March 29

DAVE GALLAGHER - THE BELLINGHAM HERALD

The Small Business Development Center at Western Washington University invites husband and wife business owner teams to participate in "National Mom and Pop Business Owners Day" on Tuesday, March 29.

Maps featuring all husband and wife owned, "mom-and-pop," businesses of Whatcom County will be distributed by the Small Business Development Center, Sustainable Connections and the Downtown Bellingham Partnership to thank local business owners for their contribution to the community and economy.

All participants must register their businesses by Monday, Feb. 21 to be listed on the Whatcom County map.

Those who register are eligible to be one of the 12 couples drawn to be invited to a celebration dinner on Tuesday, March 29. Dinner catered by Fools Onion, drinks by The North Fork Brewery, and entertainment by The Upfront Theatre will be provided at the Amadeus Project, 1209 Cornwall Ave.

To learn more about becoming an event sponsor, contact Jacob Newton-Gladstein, WWU business student, at newtonj9@students.wvu.edu.

For more information on the event or to register your business, contact Jennifer Shelton, director of WWU's Small Business Development Center, at 360-778-1762 or Jennifer.Shelton@wwu.edu.
