

THE BELLINGHAM HERALD

POSTED: Saturday, Sep. 03, 2011

Whatcom County Farm Tour set for Sept. 10

MARGARET BIKMAN - THE BELLINGHAM HERALD

The fourth annual Whatcom County Farm Tour on Saturday, Sept. 10, is the perfect day to meet local farmers, learn about their products and farms, and taste the bounty our region has to offer.

People can stop by any of the venues from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Sponsored by Sustainable Connections, the free, self-guided tour offers educational and interactive activities at each stop, products for sale at farm stands, and several bicycle routes.

Participants include BelleWood Acres, Bellingham Country Gardens, Boxx Berry Farm, Camelot Ranch Alpacas, Cloud Mountain Farm, Dakota Creek Winery, Edelweiss Dairy, Farmer Ben's, Heritage Lane Farm, Twisted S Ranch, Wake Robin Farm, Vartanyan Estate Winery and Bellingham Farmers Market.

For maps, visit the Community Food Co-op, farmers markets, local businesses or the Sustainable Connections office. For details, 360-647-7093, see sconnect.org or visit Sustainable Connections on Facebook.

Reach MARGARET BIKMAN at 360-715-2273 or margaret.bikman@bellinghamherald.com.

Read more: <http://www.bellinghamherald.com/2011/09/02/2168021/whatcom-county-farm-tour-set-for.html#ixzz1XD0Zpbo4>

