

Imagine This! Home and Landscape Tour in Bellingham

June 14th, 2010 by Fawn | Posted in Bellingham

June 26th and 27th the Bellingham and WhatcomCounty Sustainable Connections' Eighth annual Imagine This! Home and Landscape Tour will showcase the best in environmentally friendly homes and landscapes. You will be able to visit local businesses and homes and are utilizing the latest technologies in renewable energy, and recycled materials.

There will be a wealth of information on home to make your home more eco-friendly as well as a "how to" demonstrations on rain barrels and rain gardens.

Ticket costs are $12/individual (kids 12 and under are FREE) and are on sale now at Village Books, The Community Food Co-op, The Re Store, Garden Spot Nursery, and Bakerview Nursery & Garden Center. Your ticket will get you admission to all the tour stops, a tour map and community resource guide to the environmentally friendly products that you will see featured during the tour.

This is a great chance to get out and learn what you can do to help lessen your impact on the environment, save some energy and money in the process!
