

The Woods Coffee's 10th store to open in Flatiron Building

Posted on 25. Oct, 2010 by ryanwynne in Tips

The Bellingham Business Journal

The Woods Coffee, which was established in 2002 by the Herman family of Lynden, will open a 10th store in the heart of Bellingham's art district.

The business will lease 2,600 square feet at 10 Prospect St. in the historic Flatiron Building, which will also soon house Logos Bible Software.

The new location, which is planned to open later this year, will have outdoor seating and a dedicated area for live performances.

The Woods Coffee currently has four Bellingham locations, three Lynden stores and one each in Ferndale and Birch Bay Square.

For more information, visit www.thewoodscoffee.com.