

WTA employee, Steve Sage, earns award for safety

by BBJ Staff

Filed on 11. Nov, 2011 in People

Steve Sage, a transit operator at WTA, earned a Safe Driver Award from the National Safety Council. Sage has driven for more than 35 years and 875,000 miles without an accident. Recipients of the award must have worked a minimum of 15 years and 250,000 miles without an accident.

“WTA is extremely proud of Steve. Safety is job one, and Steve’s safety record is impeccable. Combine that with his positive attitude and strong work ethic and you’ve got an all-around stellar employee,” WTA General Manager Richard Walsh said in a press release.