

The News Tribune

Preview of PBS special featuring Bellingham businesses

Nov. 18

JESSICA BADER; THE BELLINGHAM HERALD

Published: 11/12/10 3:18 pm

BELLINGHAM - Bellingham is part of a one-hour PBS special, "Fixing the Future," that Sustainable Connections is previewing Thursday, Nov. 18, at Mount Baker Theatre.

The documentary highlights Bellingham as a community that uses innovative and sustainable strategies to create jobs and boost the economy. It features such Whatcom County businesses as Lummi Island Wild, The Willows Inn and Wood Stone Corp., and the Vehicle Research Institute at Western Washington University. Other communities across the nation are included.

The special will air on TV at 7 p.m. Nov. 26 on KTCS, Channel 9.

A reception will be held at 5 p.m., before the 5:45 p.m. showing. in the Encore Room at the theater. Refreshments will be provided by Boundary Bay Brewery & Bistro, The Willows Inn and Old World Deli.

The event is free and open to the public. People are encouraged to arrive early because seating will be limited. The theater is at 104 N. Commercial St.