

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Wednesday, May 25th, 2011

MEDIA CONTACT:

Jenny Walsh

General Growth Properties, Inc.

(206) 802-0908

jennifer.walsh@ggp.com

Bellis Fair Welcomes Four Local Retailers

Bellingham, WA (May 25, 2011) – Bellis Fair welcomes the arrival of summer with locally owned restaurants and boutiques. Pinky, which opened in the Target Wing on May 7, offers women’s clothing and accessories, including fashion tops, jeans and dresses. They will be followed by Red Fox on June 1st, also in the Target Wing, offering urban wear for both women and teens, including jeans, shoes, hats and other accessories.

The Food Court also will see exciting changes with two new retailers: Cold Stone Creamery, opening its second Bellingham location just in time for Memorial Day, and The Habanero Factory, serving up fresh Mexican cuisine hot off the in-house grill on June 1st.

“Bellis Fair is thrilled to introduce these locally-owned retailers to Bellingham,” said Janet Henderson, senior general manager, Bellis Fair. “The addition of these fantastic stores exemplifies our ongoing commitment to offer great opportunities to Bellingham business owners as well as fantastic retail for our local shoppers.”

About Bellis Fair

Bellis Fair is owned and managed by General Growth Properties, one of the nation’s largest shopping center owners. GGP has ownership and management interest in 169 regional and super regional shopping malls in 43 states. The company portfolio totals 172 million square feet of space. A publicly-traded real estate investment trust (REIT), GGP is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol GGP.

###